CLUE EXPLANATIONS FOR THE KX TEN GRAND CASH QUEST

Clue number one, this one is the starter;
The location you need, is not a one-parter.
A: This clue told you that more than one element was required for the complete correct location.

Clue number two, if you have such a notion;
Know that the money, is never in motion.

A: The money was never moving.

Clue number three, be sure that you heed it;
Where the money is hiding, no hard hats are needed.

A: Self explanatory.

Clue number four, to help solve the riddle;
Don't look to the side, look instead to the middle.

A: The money was hidden in a row and a seat not on an aisle but approximately in the middle.

Clue number five, get it sooner or later;

But you don't need a table, and you don't need a waiter.

A: This clue told you that the money was not in a restaurant.

Clue number six, is really good stuff;

You may give an address, but that's not enough.

A: This was an alert before guessing began that the street address of Theatre Aquarius would not be accepted as the correct answer.

Clue number seven, keep this to yourself:

This is a mystery, that helps solve itself.

A: "The KX Ten Grand Cash Quest." 10 grand equals 10 K, as in Seat 10 Row K. And KX equals Row K, Seat 10 — when you remember that X is the Roman Numeral for 10.

Clue number eight, we wish you the best;

Where the money is resting, don't expect to be blessed.

A: The money was not in a church.

Clue number nine, will help you the most;
If you're taking your car, there's parking that's close.

A: There is a parking lot close to Theatre Aquarius.

Clue number ten, don't bother with calling;
If you're just going to tell us, that water is falling.

A: We didn't hide the $10,000 near any of Hamilton's famous waterfalls.

Clue number eleven, there's money to take;

We're telling you now, it's not on the Lake.

A: Self-explanatory.

Clue number twelve, it goes without saying;

Where the money is hiding, children often are playing.

A: This clue refers to child actors playing roles on stage at Theatre Aquarius.

Clue number thirteen, this one's to be heeded;

Not only a name, there's more that is needed.

A: Another clue to tell you that more than the name of the theatre was required.

Clue number fourteen, this time it's for ten;

We've come down from before, don't go there again.

A: The money was on the mountain last time, but not this time.

Clue number fifteen, may help you get knowledge;
Where the money is hiding, is down from a college.

A: Theatre Aquarius is down the mountain from Mohawk College.

Clue number sixteen, it's not on a highway;
You must travel southwest, if you start at the Skyway.

A: Self-explanatory.

Clue number seventeen, do you know where you're going?

To help you fit in, there's etiquette worth knowing.

A: This refers to the etiquette required of theatre-goers such as be on time, turn off your phone, and no talking during performances.

Clue number eighteen, just may make you giddy:

It will help if you know, a Canadian ditty.

A: "Aquarius/Let The Sunshine In" was co-written by Canadian Galt MacDermot.

Clue number nineteen, you can stop all your pacing;
Where the money is hiding, nobody is racing.

A: Self-explanatory.

Clue number twenty, it's time to address it;

Be with Canadian troupes, in order to guess it.

A: This clue refers to theatre troupes.

Clue twenty-one, we wish you good luck;

You can rule out a stick, and you won't need a puck.

A: Self-explanatory.

Clue twenty-two, we know you can do it;

Children in school, can easily get to it.

A: Theatre Aquarius is surrounded by several elementary and secondary schools.

Clue twenty-three, if you're riding a bus;

Get where you're going, under an hour from us.

A: Depending on traffic, a bus ride from KX 94-7 to Theatre Aquarius takes between 20 minutes and half an hour.

Clue twenty-four, better get moving;

To teachers who are teaching, and students improving.

A: This clue refers to the theatre classes taught at Theatre Aquarius.

Clue twenty-five, you're getting closer I bet;

Ten thousand is hiding, where we haven't been yet.

A: We hid $3000 at the harbour, and $5000 on the mountain. This was the first time we were downtown.

Clue twenty-six, be sure that you heed it;

It's not on a road, some other is needed.

A: Theatre Aquarius is on the corner of a street and an avenue. Not a road.

Clue twenty-seven, we can't say when you're close;
Reading the small print, may help you the most.

A: "Small print" refers to theatre tickets and playbills.

Clue twenty-eight, to help your detection;

You'll know a lot more, when you get the direction.

A: The direction referred to here is theatre direction.

Clue twenty-nine, you'll soon be delighting;

If you go to a place, where things are exciting.

A: A description of an exciting theatre experience.

Clue number thirty, may help you to spot it;

But if it's just an address, we won't tell you you got it.

A: Once again we were telling you that an address was not enough.

Clue thirty-one, you may be around it;
But not till you're inside, can you say that you found it.

A: The correct location was inside the theatre.

Clue thirty-two, we know your intention;

The answer might lie, in another dimension.

A: A reference to Theatre Aquarius by way of The Fifth Dimension who had the biggest hit version "Aquarius/Let the Sunshine In."

Clue thirty-three, we've given all sorts;

This one's to tell you, you need not say sports.

A: Self-explanatory.

Clue thirty-four, the money is waiting;

Maybe you'll find it, with someone you're dating.

A: A reference to the theatre as a good place to go on a date.

Clue thirty-five, we're a blue-collar town;

You'll be reminded of that, where the money is found.

A: Theatre Aquarius is inside The Dofasco Centre for the Arts.

Clue thirty-six, think happy and sad;
Think some that are good, and some that are bad.

A: Some theatre is good. Some is bad. Some theatre is happy and some theatre is sad.

Clue thirty-seven, it's good that you know it;

If you love how it went, be sure that you show it.

A: A reference to an appreciative theatre audience.

Clue thirty-eight, keep moving along;

If you stop at the money, you're no longer wrong.

A: This clue points you to Row K and the need to move along it until you get to Seat 10.

Clue thirty-nine, we're not trying to hide it;

To the secret location, you just might be guided.

A: Refers to the ushers at Theatre Aquarius.

Clue number forty, the location is pleasant;

It could be a prize, it could be a present.

A: Theatre tickets can be won as a prize or received as a gift.

Clue forty-one, you're in the right zone;

If you think that most people, don't go there alone.

A: Self-explanatory.

Clue forty-two, you'll know that you found it;
If there are people in front, behind, and around it.

A: This clue describes Row K Seat 10.

Clue forty-three, there's dough in the offing;

Close to the fortune, you might hear someone coughing.

A: A cough really stands out in an otherwise quiet theatre.

Clue forty-four, here's what they're hoping;
When you're leaving for home, nobody is moping.

A: This clue told you the money was hidden somewhere (Theatre Aquarius) that people could leave feeling happy.

Clue forty-five, it's easy to find;

If your tie is straight, and your shoes are shined.

A: Refers to dressing up to go to the theatre.

Clue forty-six, give this one a try:
What do you see, when you look in the sky?

A: You see "stars," just like you do at Theatre Aquarius.

Clue forty-seven, you're seeing the city;

Where the money is hiding, the scenery is pretty.

A: "Seeing the city" is a reference to a downtown hiding place, and "scenery" refers to scenery on stage.

Clue forty-eight, find the money and spend it;

The money remains, when the evening is ended.

A: Refers to an evening at the theatre.

Clue forty-nine, the money is bigger;
If you're out for the evening, this one you can figure.

A: Refers to a night out at the theatre.

Clue number fifty, to find a king's ransom;
The men that you see, are often quite handsome.

A: Theatre Aquarius is located on King William Street, and actors are often good looking.

Clue fifty-one, the answer is coming;

If you're listening closely, you might hear some humming.

A: Refers to musical theatre.

Clue fifty-two, the money is telling,

Exactly the location, where the money is dwelling.

A: Another clue to tell you that Ten Grand (10 K) can be interpreted at Seat 10 Row K.

Clue fifty-three, is one of the best;

Part of the answer, has already been guessed.

A: Self-explanatory.

Clue fifty-four, is good for explaining;

That the answer you say, must be entertaining.

A: Refers to theatrical entertainment.

Clue fifty-five, is a kind of a code;

What do you know, that cowboys once rode?

A: Cowboys once rode a "stage."

Clue fifty-six, it's not in a park;

But even in daylight, it sometimes is dark.

A: Refers to the lights going down in a theatre.

Clue fifty-seven, the contest is heated;

You can find all the money, if you know where it's seated.

A: A direct reference to the money being at a seat.

Clue fifty-eight, we hope that you find it;

There are letters in front, and letters behind it.

A: Refers to the lettered rows in front of and behind of Row K.

Clue fifty-nine, this is worth knowing;

November is coming, do you have the right clothing?

A: Coming to Theatre Aquarius in November: Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat.

Clue number sixty, are you getting any nearer?

If you'll please have a seat, it'll be getting much clearer.

A: Another reference to the $10,000 being at a seat.